

A 20x20 grid of 400 squares, each containing a three-armed star shape. The stars are arranged in a repeating pattern of four groups of 10, each group containing a different color: red, green, blue, and yellow. The grid is bordered by a thick black line on the top and bottom, and a thick black line on the left and right. The numbers 1 through 20 are printed in the top-left corner of each row and the bottom-right corner of each column.
